WEDNESDAY.

W. A. Rawlings of Covington is in our midst.

Charles McMath of Cincinnati was here Saturday.

Col. R. R. Maltby was here yesterday from Cincinnati.

Farmers, buy your twine from Cord. It is rapidly advancing in price.

E. A. Stewart of Cincinnati was here last week taking orders for coal.

R. M. Harrison of Harrison Bros. of Bethel, was here this week on business.

A large crowd from this neighborhood attended County Court at Flemingsburg Monday.

Big show in the schoolhouse to-night. Come and see an 800 pound rock broken on a man's breast.

Mrs. William Hall and daughter Maggie, visited relatives near Sanford several days the past week.

Prayer-meeting Thursday night, Mite Society Friday night, and, best of all, the entertainment in the Christian Church Saturday night.

MORANBURG.

Rev. Mr. York will preach here next Sunday at 11 a. m.

Some of our farmers have the blues. Better subscribe for THE LEDGER.

Lawrence Creek was higher last Wednesday than for several years.

J. W. Melvin of Brooksville was visiting his son, J. B. Melvin, last Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. J. W. Nelson arrived too late on Sunday to fill his appointment, on account of a sick child.

If all reports are true we think the members of the M. E. Church had better put some new locks on the doors.

Mrs. Reid will give an entertainment at the Christian Church on the evening of the 30th of this month. Tickets for sale at the Postoffice.

Mrs. Eva Huber delivered her crop of 17,000 lbs. of tobacco to Cipler & Stevenson of Ripley at 29 per hundred from the ground up. It was raised on thirteen acres of hillside land, making her about $118 per acre.

We took a trip to Pleasant Ridge in the Eastern part of the county on last Saturday. Passing through the Orangeburg precinct we met two voters wending their way towards the burg. They were C. C. Degman and Xerxes Berry, the former a Hillis man of course, the latter for Wall. We persuaded Mr. Berry to return home, while Charley went on his way rejoicing. Mr. Berry had just as well gone too the way the thing turned out, but all the same we stayed with him until the election was over. On Sunday morning we visited Bethany Church and found W. H. Hook busily engaged in superintending and teaching in the Sunday-school. A more earnest worker would be hard to find. We need a few such workers in this part of the vineyard. At 11 a. m. Elder T. P. Degman preached one of his best sermons to an almost crowded house, which was well received by his hearers. Everybody sings up there, don't forget it. After shaking hands with many old friends we returned home Sunday evening with some pleasant recollections that will not soon be forgotten.

The Kentucky Journal says the colored teacher of penmanship in the Cincinnati schools is to be fired because he made a winning at Latonia, and was seen by a member of the School Board to take a fifteen cent lemonade. Serves him right. He should have kept quiet about his winnings and stuck to beer, like the member of the Board who detected him in his crime.

HENRY IMBUS had a rib taken out at the Cincinnati Hospital, and, unlike our ancient progenitor, Mr. Adam, was not given a substitute for it.

WHEN will the greenhorns become extinct? A rich old fool at South Bend, Ind., has just been taken in for $7,000 by the gold brick racket. Served him right.

THE Master Commissioner of the Chancery Court of Campbell county, and the Swift Iron and Steel Works of Newport, have entered suit in the U. S. Court against Adam Wagner, Charles Reif, the Chattanooga Brewing Company. They sue Wagner for $80,000, and the other parties are made defendants in the bill to secure possession of four hundred shares of stock in the Chattanooga Brewing Company.

LEXINGTON has just developed an unsavory case. Lilla White, colored, was in jail for poisoning her family; she had had two trials, with a hung jury in each case. She found out that it was unlawful to hang a pregnant woman in Kentucky, so she sacrificed her virtue to save her neck. The jail officials tried to keep the matter quiet, but it came out and her confession to the charge of manslaughter won her fifteen years in the pen.

Mrs. JOHN BRENNER of Covington has paid over $2,000 as her gift to the German Old People's Home, Cincinnati, to be built this year.

An Auditor of a Democratic county in Indiana is charged with receiving $11,045 88 in illegal fees inside of four years; and it wasn't a very good period for collecting illegal fees either.

CHARLIE MOORE's sixty day sentence in the Paris jail, says The News, will expire next Tuesday, when he will be allowed to depart in peace, as County Attorney John S. Smith has instructed Sheriff McClure not to serve the bench warrants on him.

On and after July 1st, paid locals will be inserted in THE LEDGER at 25 cents per line for each insertion.
